Why KTHM college?

NAAC Accredited with A++ grade with a CGPA score of 3.79 (highest in Maharashtra).

Well-equipped audio-visual lab.

Net-connected computer labs with the latest software and hardware. Qualified and experienced faculty. Eminent personalities and experts' as visiting faculty.

Placement: Placement cell to help students with placement.

Our pass-out students have been well placed in various local, regional, and national media houses and related areas and are doing excellent in their fields.

Students are given ample exposure to various media organisations, govt, non-govt, political, non-political parties, organisations, and institutions along with individual guidance from faculty for the development of the students.

In this course, preference is given to imparting knowledge and teaching skills like reporting, writing, and editing. These basic skills are required to work in newspapers, magazines, radio, TV, and digital media.

Media houses too prefer persons with these skills. With the rise in penetration in the digital world, equal opportunities for both, be it a boy or a girl are ample.

Job opportunities - apart from being a journalist in print, electronic and digital media, content creator, event organiser, social media coordinator, and many more.

Writing and editing skills open up opportunities in other sectors too. So, for some reason who don't wish to pursue a career in journalism, sectors like corporates, Public Relations, software companies, advertising firms, website developers are on the lookout for such skilled manpower.

These companies show interest in conducting campus.
